

Army Vet, 16, Advises Boys To 'Stay At Home'

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Back home after a second hitch in the Army which took him to Korea, 16-year-old Ralph Renfro Jr. advises other youngsters to "stay at home."

Ralph's mother recently ended his Korean sojourn when she sent his commanding officer a copy of his birth certificate.

The young world traveler and soldier of fortune, who looks like he might be 21, says he wouldn't go through his experiences again "for a million dollars," but "I wouldn't take a million dollars for having had them."

Slight Fib At 13
But he adds quickly, "I should have listened to my dad." If he had it all to do over, he says, "I'd stay home."

At the age of 13, Ralph was roughnecking (hard labor) in an oil field. "By telling a slight fib," he said yesterday, he joined the 49th Armored Division of the National Guard in 1950.

Several months later he decided to join the Army, an idea his mother took as a joke because he was just 14. But he enlisted in September, 1950, and was discharged in 1951 because he had asthma.

A trip west — through Arizona, New Mexico, Nebraska, Colorado and Montana — was followed by shipping out as a crewman on a yacht. When the ship docked in New Orleans last year, he enlisted in the Army again.

He's Had Enough
At Camp Chaffee, Ark., he volunteered for Korean duty. By this time his mother decided to let him stay in service until he had had enough.

A few months ago, Mrs. Renfro decided the boy was getting homesick and started action to get him home. He was separated from the service at Ft. Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tuesday. He was glad to see "mom" and "dad," the latter a carpenter here.

"If they get me back," he said yesterday, "they'll have to draft me."

Landlord Kills Two Over Dog

DETROIT (AP)—A tenant-landlord quarrel Thursday over a dog and hot water in an upstairs flat boiled up into the shooting of a woman tenant and her son by an angry landlord.

William Stevens, 30, was in serious condition today at Receiving Hospital with wounds from a .38-caliber pistol police said was fired by the landlord, Dominic Grupido, 49.

Mrs. Callie Stevens, 52, with whom her son lived, was treated for a flesh wound of the hip.

Grupido was held for investigation of assault with intent to murder.

Police said Grupido had asked the Stevens to leave their $25-a-week flat because their Doberman Pinscher, Greata, dug up the lawn. Wednesday the landlord shut off the utilities, but the board of health instructed Grupido to turn them on again.

He partly complied, but left the hot water off. While leaving Thursday afternoon to hunt for a new home, the Stevens stopped to ask the landlord to turn on the hot water.

An argument followed, and Grupido ran into the house and returned with a gun. He yanked open the door of the Stevens car and fired at the tenants, they said.

Robbers Take Jewels From Arlene Judge

BEVERLY HILLS (AP)—Actress Arlene Judge reported to police that her home was ransacked yesterday by five robbers, one a girl, and that they took diamonds and jewelry she valued at $10,000.

"But I talked them out of taking $30,000 worth of furs and a $6,000 sapphire ring," Miss Judge told officers.

"They were very sweet," said the actress, who has been married and divorced six times. "I felt as safe as if I were in the arms of a 10-year-old gorilla. I answered a knock on the door, they rushed in and went to work. They seemed to know exactly where to look for what they wanted."

"I told them I could wear false jewels on my television appearances but I needed the coats and if they took them they'd put me out of work."

Get-Tough Order Ends Rebellion Of 325 In Pennsylvania Prison

By LEONARD A. UNGER
BELLEFONTE, Pa. (AP)—A band of 325 rebel convicts, mindful of a tightening ring of heavily armed state police and unyielding by the roar of National Guard fighter planes overhead, surrendered unconditionally last night to the "get tough" orders of Gov. John S. Fine.

The rebels released six guard hostages shortly before 7 o'clock, EST, and then filed meekly back into their cells from the barricaded building they had turned into a fortress.

Hostages Unharmed
None of the hostages had been harmed, although one was near the point of exhaustion from his 72-hour ordeal.

The convicts—a holdout segment of a riot that started last Monday—tossed out through the shattered windows of the cellblock the eight revolvers, five hundred rounds of ammunition and tear gas equipment that had been one of the main concerns of the prison officials during the insurrection.

Their surrender made unnecessary a planned attack on the cellblock strong point by state policemen and alerted National Guard units.

Jackson Mutiny Felon Convicted

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—Earl Ward, 28-year-old leader of last April's mutiny at Southern Michigan prison, yesterday was convicted of kidnapping a guard during the costly million-dollar riot.

A jury convicted Ward after less than two hour's deliberation.

Judge Harry D. Boardman sentenced ward to serve a 20-30 year term for the abduction of guard Frank Hinton.

Ward actually will serve only four years of the sentence. Judge Boardman directed the new term to be served concurrently with Ward's present 15-30 year term for armed robbery.

Before Judge Boardman pronounced the term, Ward blurted out: "Don't use no discretion. Give me life."

Dean Of Agriculture
Appointed At MSC
To Succeed Anthony

EAST LANSING (AP)—Dr. Clifford M. Hardin, 37-year-old director of the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station, was named dean of the school of agriculture at Michigan State College yesterday.

The appointment, effective July 1, was announced by the State Board of Agriculture, college governing body. Hardin succeeds Dean Ernest L. Anthony, retired.

Hardin's successor as director of the experiment station will be Dr. Lloyd M. Turk, a staff member for 20 years and present head of the soil science department.

Wilson Drops GM Stock, Joins Eisenhower Cabinet

New President Has Conference With His Staff

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower confers with his Cabinet today for the first time since taking office, with the administration hoping the way was cleared for Charles E. Wilson to join the official family soon.

The first big problem to confront the new Republican regime may have been solved last night when Wilson, at a White House meeting with Eisenhower, agreed to dispose of his 2½ million dollars worth of General Motors stock. The President then formally nominated him to be secretary of defense.

Other Questions Raised

Wilson's decision to get rid of the stock to clear an apparent legal barrier to his winning Senate approval brought predictions from some influential senators that he would be confirmed.

But there were indications from other quarters that a question would be raised as to whether the former GM president has other financial interests which might still stand in the way.

The men Eisenhower selected for the eight officer Cabinet posts already have been confirmed by the Senate and have been sworn into office. They and five other top officials of the new administration were scheduled to meet with the President to discuss a wide range of foreign and domestic problems.

In advance of the session, the White House said it did not know whether Wilson would sit in. If he did, he probably would arrive late because the Senate armed Services Committee booked a meeting at the same hour to question him.

Preparing Message
Besides the Cabinet, Eisenhower invited to the White House conference:

Vice President Nixon; Mrs. Ove-eta Culp Hobby, federal security administrator; Joseph M. Dodge, budget director; Harold E. Stassen, chosen to head the Mutual Security Agency; Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., who will be ambassador to the United Nations; and

State Atty. Gen. Robert E. Wood- side, after a conference with the governor, replied in a note that "only an unconditional surrender will be accepted." He ordered the prisoners to turn over their guns and ammunition to the priest or to the hostage guards who were to Country Boy Truman Takes It In Stride At Independence, Mo.

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP)—That fellow you couldn't help bumping into all over Jackson County today was Harry S. Truman.

Just to look at him, strolling along the sidewalks, with an infectious grin on his face, you would never guess three days ago he was president of the United States if you hadn't seen his picture in the papers so often.

Adjustment Comes Easy
The new ex-President was taking ing the problem of adjustment after nearly eight years in the White House, with all its attendant burdens, in easy stride.

And so was Jackson County—Kansas City, where he has his new private offices; Independence, where he and Mrs. Truman live in the big white frame house on North Delaware Street; and Grandview, where his family has a farm.

When you consider that this 68-year-old man, with the blue eyes twinkling beneath his thick lensed spectacles, came home only Wednesday night after turning over the White House to Dwight D. Eisenhower, you had to admit that the adjustment was coming along fine.

Many Jobs Offered
This reporter bumped into Truman at his offices on the 11th floor of the Federal Reserve Bank Building, where the ex-President tackled the job of answering hundreds of letters and telegrams.

"I feel like a country boy in the big city again," Truman asserted.

He said that he didn't know what the big city again was like.

Unrest Has Jackson Prison In Turmoil

LANSING (AP)—New unrest has

Southern Michigan Prison in a turmoil, Warden William H. Bannan told a press conference last night.

Since publication Tuesday of a statement by Dr. Russell L. Finch, retired medical director of the prison, Bannan said, "rumors of a new outbreak have been running thick and fast" through the prison. Dr. Finch accused prison officials of "brutality."

A disastrous, week-long riot broke out in the prison last April, and on Nov. 18 another incipient riot was nipped in the bud in the dining hall.

Mistreatment Denied

At the conference, arranged in the executive office by the governor's staff, Bannan also released a prepared statement denying point by point Dr. Finch's charges of mistreatment of prisoners.

Bannan said the prison was seething Wednesday night with rumors that the prison was "going to blow up" at 9 a. m. Thursday.

This did not materialize, he said, but there was an alarming incident in the twin mill at about the appointed time.

An inmate dropped some burning material in the highly inflammable jute from which the twine is made. Two other inmates quickly clutched the flames, Bannan said.

Sabre Jets Bag 3 More Migs

By JIM BECKER

SEOUL (AP)—Allied Sabre jets blasted three Communist MIG15s from the cold but sunny North Korean skies today and damaged seven, the U. S. Fifth Air Force reported.

It brought to 14 the number of Russian-built jet fighters destroyed in three days. At least 13 MIGs have been damaged. One Red warplane was probably destroyed Tuesday, before the big air battles got under way.

The Sabres were up at daybreak to shield Allied fighter-bombers striking farther south at Communist supply lines and battlefront positions.

Fighter-bomber pilots reported wrecking 90 Communist vehicles and destroying a locomotive and 10 boxcars. In the night 14 U. S. Superforts cascaded bombs on a railroad yard at Yangdok astride the Reds' east-west supply route across the narrow, 90-mile waist of North Korea.

Losses Run High
During one week in December, when the worst fog in recent memory muffled the city, the death rate jumped by 2,000 persons—more than doubling the normal figure for the period.

Most of the deaths have been attributed to bronchitis, pneumonia and heart ailments touched off by the king-sized overcast. The government says it is probing the fatalities with "the gravest urgency."

A fog costs big money, too. On each of 16 dark days this far this winter, the big international airlines using London's two main airports lost an estimated 60,000 pounds ($168,000) through delays and diversions.

May Return To Fido
The squeeze on the airlines is so bad that they are pressing the British government, which runs the airports, to bring back the wartime fog disposal system known as "Fido."

Under this system, gasoline or diesel oil is set afire in blazing rows alongside airport runways. The heat shifts the fog.

"Fido" is expensive, but airline officials say its cost is small in comparison to their losses. Peter Masfield, boss of the nationalized British European Airways Corp., said:

"A fog costs us 20,000 pounds ($56,000) a day. We are all in favor of Fido."

The National Smoke Abatement Society, a voluntary organization supported by hundreds of municipalities, has called for a full-scale investigation of the fogs.

Soldiers In Korea Have Best Chance To Return Safely

By SAM SUMMERLIN

TOKYO (AP)—The Army's top surgeon today said soldiers in Korea "have a better chance of not being wounded—or of living if wounded"—than fighters in any other comparable conflict.

Maj. Gen. George E. Armstrong in a news conference reviewed dramatic strides in research which are saving lives and limbs at the battlefield.

Armstrong, Army surgeon general, leaves Tokyo tomorrow for Washington after a tour of Korea, Japan and Okinawa.

Arteries Transplanted
The two-star general described new treatments for the wounded—including a method for transplanting arteries which may cut amputations by 70 per cent, an intricate artificial kidney to lessen deaths from severe shock and a "most encouraging" trial substitute for blood plasma, dextran.

Armstrong expressed a belief that the new armored vest will affect for the first time in 30 years the 1 to 4 ratio between killed and wounded in battle.

Fever Deaths Drop

The general also had good news on Korea's most baffling disease—hemorrhagic fever, sometimes called "Manchurian fever."

July and December, Armstrong said, are the peak periods, but last month, the rise was smaller both in the number of cases—about 200—and percentage of deaths. He noted, however, that while the Army "knows something about treatment" of this fever, it still has not determined the agent for the disease or how it is transmitted.

Armstrong said the percentage of wounded who die after getting medical attention runs a normal 2½ per cent.

But "a remarkable number of men wounded are returned to duty—upwards of 87 per cent."

The general also noted tremendous strides in caring for combat fatigue. In World War II, he said, psychiatric cases caused the most discharges. In Korea, "they are a drop in the bucket."

Pea Soup Smogs
Rile Up London

By COLIN FROST
LONDON (AP)—Normally easy-going London is finally getting really riled up about one of its long-time winter complaints—the city's famous pea soup fogs.

In the last three months, four big sulphur-laden smog blankets have led to an estimated 6,000 deaths and seriously crippled communications in the world's biggest capital.

Quick Approval Predicted For Defense Chief

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Charles E. Wilson, after removing the apparent big obstacle to his becoming secretary of defense, was nominated last night to fill that remaining post in the Eisenhower Cabinet.

The Senate promptly moved to give Wilson a hearing preparatory to the quick approval predicted by a number of influential senators.

Makes Sacrifice
President Eisenhower formally named the former president of General Motors to head the vitally important Defense Department after, the White House said, Wilson volunteered to dispose of his GM stock.

Wilson's retention of a financial interest in the company had aroused strong opposition in the Senate. As a result, Eisenhower left out the defense secretaryship when he submitted the names of his other Cabinet choices on Tuesday.

In the defense post, Wilson would be in position to deal with GM, the department's biggest private contractor. And a federal law long on the statute books bars any federal official from transacting business with a firm in which he AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—A shallow but vicious norther—packing a heavyweight punch—blew from the Panhandle-plains area deep into the Texas midlands today.

Power and telephone lines and poles sagged and snapped under the weight of ice and snow in the Panhandle where a dangerous glaze of ice made driving "extremely hazardous." The snowfall ranged from 2-3 inches at Lubbock to around 10 inches at Akin.

Hundreds of motorists sought refuge in farm homes already crowded in some instances by school children who couldn't make it home after buses stalled in deep snow-drifts.

Draft Call Falls

LANSING (AP)—Only seven physicians and three dentists in Michigan will be available to apply to a February call for 20 dentists and 21 physicians, Col. Arthur E. Holmes, state selective service director, said today.

He predicted that the shortage would result in lowering of the physical standards for acceptance of the professional men into the armed services.

"The dentists and doctors selected for the February call are those who received their education at public expense or who were deferred during World War II and served less than 21 months."

All selections in February will be under 36 years of age.

Trailer Rules Are Upheld By City Planners

The Escanaba Planning commission, in a joint meeting with the city council last night, stuck by the city's ordinance regulating parking and storing of house trailers in the city.

The commission recommended that the ordinance be left as it is, and referred it back to the city council. The council previously referred the trailer ordinance to the commission for study, after objections were raised by trailer owners.

Members of the commission pointed out that they had spent two and a half years studying the regulations for house trailers, and that they still felt they had a "good" ordinance.

Objections Raised

The ordinance regulating house trailers was adopted Sept. 1, 1949, and owners were given two years to make necessary adjustments.

Three members of the city council met jointly with members of the commission last night to review the ordinance.

Objections have been raised before the city council because the present ordinance does not permit an owner to park a trailer coach on his property more than 72 hours without a permit and then only for 60 days in any year with a permit.

Protect Property

City Manager A. V. Aronson told commission members that adjustments have been sought in the regulations for storing house trailers in yards and for living in trailers.

Commission members emphasized that they must consider the community as a whole, and that drafting of an ordinance which would please 100 per cent of the people is impossible.

"We can't expect people to build good homes and beautify the grounds about them if we don't protect them from deterioration of property values through zoning regulations," one commission member stated.

Extended Commercial Zone

City planners also stressed that each person should pay a fair share of the costs of maintaining schools, streets and other services provided by city government, but were agreed that it was not the intention of the city to "run people with trailers out."

A recommendation for adoption of a precise plat for the area bounded by 19th and 23rd streets and South 5th and 8th avenues was briefly discussed last night, and tabled.

The commission previously studied two precise plats for this area, and at different times recommended both of them, after property owners in the area signified their satisfaction. Objections now are being raised because of the amount of land set aside in the plat for alley rights of way.

The commission in its regular meeting last night also accepted a recommendation of the zoning committee that the commercial zone be extended south across North 13th Avenue, to include vacant lots at the corners of Washington avenue and North 21st street. Included in the planning commission recommendation is a proposal to amend the present zoning ordinance to require that commercial buildings be set back in conformity with regulations for adjoining residential property in blocks where commercial and residential buildings are mixed.

New Members

Dale Vinette, Jess Pomazal and Larry Fleming were appointed by the commission to study side yard restrictions in the present zoning ordinance which apply to dwellings with attached garages. Commission members indicated they favor present regulations, as interpreted by the city clerk's office. The section of the ordinance under consideration regulates the distance separating buildings on adjoining lots.

John Bartella, vice chairman, presided at the meeting last night. The next meeting will be held Feb. 12, at which time the commission will elect officers. Four new members who have been appointed to the planning commission by the city council will formally accept their posts at the next meeting. The new members are Atty. William Anderson, Jess Pomazal, Larry Fleming and Elridge Baker.

The commission's chairman, E. H. Niederauer, recently resigned because he was moving to another city.

Uses Formula For Finding Indian Camps

PLYMOUTH, Mass. (AP)—Former Vice President Jesse Brewer of the Massachusetts Archaeological Society has a simple formula for discovering Indian campsites. He has found 84 in a half century.

"You've just got to think like an Indian," says Brewer. "They had to be near a good source of fresh water and they favored a south or southeast slope to get the sun fairly early in the morning. The Indian, just like everyone else, liked to be comfortable. So we put ourselves in Indians' moccasins, so to speak, and poke around."

Stepfather Shot Over Toy Gun

ALLEGAN (AP)—A 15-year old Allegan high school student was held today in the shotgun shooting of his stepfather last night in a quarrel over a wooden gun.

The stepfather, Richard Locke, 30, was in critical condition today at the Allegan Health Center.

Sheriff L. A. Johnson said Locke was shot in the stomach by his stepson, Burton Overholt Locke, with a single barreled shotgun fired from a distance of seven feet.

The boy's mother, Evelyn, 32, said her husband struck her with the wooden gun as the three quarreled in the kitchen of their home.

"I was knocked to the floor and Burton came to my assistance," Mrs. Locke said. "I heard my husband say 'don't touch her, let her lay.'"

Mrs. Locke said her husband then kicked her and she heard "something go bang" like a firecracker. The mother said Burton had brought his stepfather's shotgun from another room.

Mrs. Locke said she called the sheriff and an ambulance at the home of a neighbor after the shooting.

She quoted her husband as saying: "Honey, I'm sorry, it's all my fault."

Mrs. Locke said there had been no previous trouble in the family which includes two other children, Karen, 5, and Daniel, 2. She said Burton "idolized his stepfather."

Delta Nurses Elect Officers

Miss Anita Kotila, a member of the nursing staff of the Delta-Menominee Health department, this week was re-elected president of the Delta County District Nurses association.

Mrs. Adolph Johnson was elected vice president, Mrs. Jack Novack, secretary; Miss Cora Peltier, treasurer; Miss Phoebe Anderson, historian; and Mrs. Donald VanEnkevort, director for three years.

Mrs. Novack has been selected to represent Delta County general duty nurses at a conference in Kellogg Center at East Lansing Feb. 4-5.

The Delta County nurses' loan fund, to provide money for study of nursing, is growing and soon will be available for those interested, it was reported.

Nurses have sponsored bake sales and other projects to raise money for this fund, which will assist nurses who desire to take post graduate courses and persons interested in studying nursing.

Following the business meeting a film was shown on the biennial nurses convention at Atlantic City in June, 1952. The story of the reorganization of the six national organizations into just two, the American Nurses Association and the National League of Nursing, was outlined.

Other business transacted at the convention last summer was adoption of a 40-hour work week, acceptance of a new economic

Change In Michigan's Initiative-Referendum Statute Is Proposed

LANSING (AP)—The first change in Michigan's 40-year-old initiative and referendum was asked today by Senator Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville).

Both were voted into the constitution by the people in 1913. They can only be changed by a vote of the people, if the legislature places Hutchinson's proposal on the ballot.

Under the initiative, the people by petition may initiate a law. If the legislature accepts it, it becomes law. If the legislature rejects it, the measure goes to the people for their decision.

Under the referendum, the people by petition may stop the effect of any law passed by the legislature until it can be put to a popular vote.

The initiative has been used only once successfully in Michigan. That was to force the legislature to legalize colored oleomargarine two years ago. Opponents of the measure attached a referendum to it and the people approved it.

The most drastic of Hutchinson's proposals was to allow the legislature to amend or repeal laws initiated and voted by the people. The system now requires the legislature to act on an initiated program, and pledging support of the American Nurses association in meeting the needs of the Armed Forces, Delta nurses were informed.

Speeding Tops Violations In City Last Year

Speeding topped the list of violations of the driving laws by motorists in Escanaba last year, with the police making 134 arrests for speeding in enforcement of traffic laws, according to the Escanaba Police Department annual report.

Escanaba police issued a total of 633 summonses to motorists for violations in 1952, said Safety Director Glen S. Leonard.

Besides the 134 tickets issued to speeders, others were as follows: 58 for disobeying a traffic signal, 132 for disobeying a stop sign, 33 for reckless driving, and 39 for not having the car under control. In addition, 12 drivers were arrested for intoxication, and 49 summonses were issued for failing to yield the right of way.

517 Paid Fines

Of the total summonses issued, 256 were to drivers who were involved in accidents. This was a substantial increase over the 169 summonses issued in accident cases in 1951, and is in conformity to recommendations of the National Safety Council in its traffic safety inventory for the city. The Safety Council had recommended that the Police Department policy in accident arrests be strengthened.

Total moving violation arrests last year, however, were slightly below the 667 summonses issued in 1951.

Of the 633 drivers summoned last year, 517 were fined, 24 were juveniles, 61 were warned, dismissed, or were not guilty, and the remainder were pending at the end of the year.

Parking Violations

Police issued a total of 1,580 parking violation tickets last year, somewhat below the reduction may be attributed to better observance of parking regulations by motorists, despite the fact that the number of overtime parking summonses issued increased from 436 in 1951 to 1,071 in 1952.

Defective equipment and other regulatory violations numbered 207 last year, a decrease from the 284 in 1951.

Of the total parking and miscellaneous summonses issued, 1,122 resulted in fines, 23 were juveniles, 539 were warned or found not guilty, and 253 could not be located. The remainder are pending.

Miscellaneous services provided by the Police Department last year included 61 money escorts, 127 bank deposits for city departments, 11 funeral escorts, delivery of 289 official city letters, 91 mail escorts, 155 checks on property and assistance at 116 fires.

U. P. Champions

Complaints concerning children's pranks brought 388 investigations and reports. The police received 203 complaints concerning animals and destroyed 143 animals. The total number of miscellaneous services provided was 652; and the total number of police assignments, on which written reports were made, was 4,420.

The Police Department also issued 1,928 driver's licenses, 868 bicycle licenses, took 190 sets of fingerprints, inspected taverns 708 times, inspected taxis 54 times, and traveled a total of 111,095 miles on patrols and investigations.

Last year Police Department pistol teams placed first and third in the Class B Upper Peninsula police pistol championship matches, and fourth in the Michigan State Police Class D pistol championships. The officers fired 1,810 rounds of ammunition in training and competition.

County Air Tour Is A Possibility

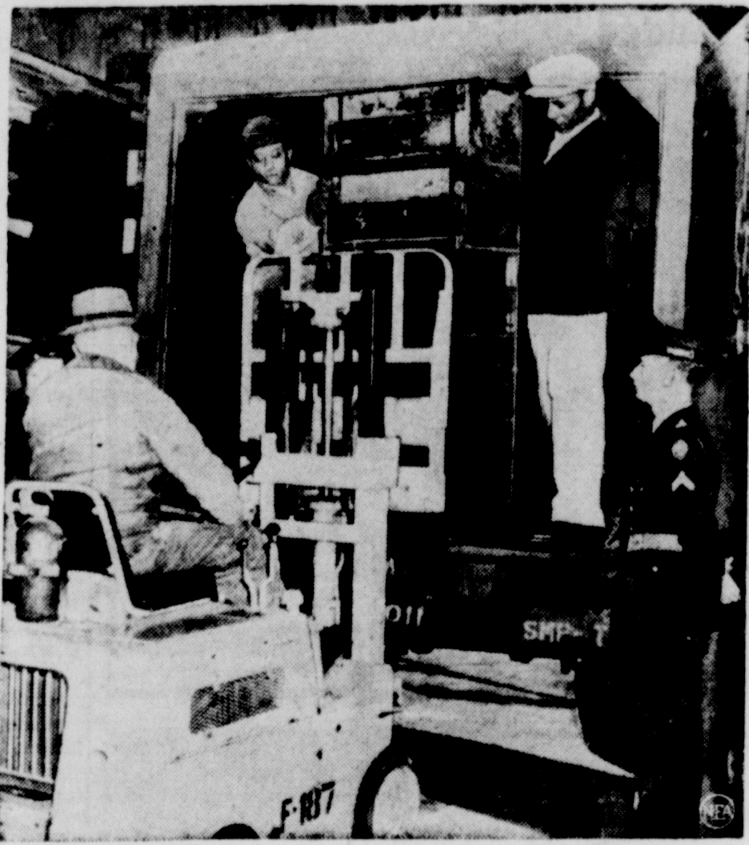

It is possible that an air tour of Delta County farms will be organized in the future, Tom Hughes, farm planner for the Soil Conservation service, said today.

Air tours have taken place county by county throughout the entire state during the past few years, he explained, adding, "They've been received so enthusiastically that there'll be a lot more of them next year."

The purpose of an air tour is educational. Farmers and other interested persons have a unique opportunity to see for themselves how soil conservation practices, like contour farming, are working out, he said. Many of the things they see would be difficult to reach by car. Also, Hughes said, there is the personal interest of seeing how your own or a neighbor's farm looks from the air.

The farmers pay the cost of the air tours themselves. In some cases, Hughes said, implement dealers and community organizations pay most of the expense and those who go on the tour pay a nominal fee.

A recent Upper Peninsula air tour was in Menominee County July 20, 1952. The tour started at Menominee airport and went north on the east side of Highway S 41 as far as Carney. The return was on the west side of the highway. Two four-place planes were used, each trip being 65

Williams Program To Cost 106 Million Dismays Lawmakers

LANSING (AP)—A leading Senate Republican says that if Gov. Williams has his way the state's mental hospital program, for which the people voted a $65,000,000 bond issue two years ago, will cost $106,000,000.

The statement came from Senator Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Porter said he doubted whether the state could afford such expenditures for mental hospitals alone. He said such a sum would virtually deny construction money for state-supported colleges.

Planning Money Spent
Porter reported to the Senate that $7,000,000 is left of the bond issue for projects totalling $48,289,800 which Williams has recommended.

The Senate money chairman declared that $43,239,400 has been appropriated out of the bond issue

"Fifty-four persons made the tour, and from the comments we heard as they returned we'll have a lot more next time," Wendell Sandahl, president of the board of directors of the Menominee County Soil Conservation District, said in his report on the tour.

Actor John Agar Arrested Again

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Arrested a fourth time on a drunk-driving charge, actor John Agar faces a court appearance today for another alleged offense—violation of probation.

Terms of a previous drunk-driving conviction, for which he served 60 days at the county honor farm in 1951, specified that he should not drive a car during a three-year probation period.

Agar, 31, divorced husband of former actress Shirley Temple, went to jail twice yesterday.

The first time was after his arrest early in the day on charges of drunk driving and driving with a suspended operator's license.

A friend, film producer Hal R. Makelim, posted $1,500 bail. The actor pleaded innocent to both counts and asked a jury trial which was set for Feb. 4.

As he was about to leave the Santa Monica court, he was re-arrested for alleged violation of probation. His attorney obtained his release from the West Los Angeles jail on a writ of habeas corpus and bail of $500.

Agar's present wife, Loretta, and his mother, Mrs. Lillian Agar, were in the Santa Monica court at his arraignment. His wife said he left their home Wednesday night to take their French poodle, Rag Mop, for a walk.

The actor told officers he visited a friend in Malibu and was returning home when arrested.

Nahma

Woman's Club

NAHMA—The Woman's Club met in the library at the Nahma Club on Tuesday evening. Due to the small number in attendance, the election of officers was postponed until the next meeting.

Mrs. Martin Kousbaugh held high score for the bridge games and Mrs. Mike Washut was high in 500.

The committee serving refreshments was: chairman, Mrs. William Rauls, Mrs. Nick Gemuenden, Mrs. Nels Plude and Mrs. Martin Kousbaugh.

Those to serve in February are: chairman, Mrs. Fred Popour, Mrs. John Zimmerman, Mrs. John Schwartz Sr., and Mrs. Adrian Hebert.

Shower Party

Miss Clara Bingham and Eli Constantino were honored by the community with a wedding shower at the Nahma Club on Wednesday evening. Cards were played with high scores held by Mrs. Pat Phalen, canasta; Mrs. Nick Gemuenden, bridge; Mrs. Adrian Hebert, 500; and Mrs. Fred Olmsted, sheephead. The guest award was presented to Mrs. Harry DeRosier. After refreshments the couple, whose marriage is taking place Saturday, were presented with many lovely and useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Constantino Sr., of Ogontz, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Constantino Jr., of Brampton and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bingham of Escanaba were out of town guests. Those arranging the party were: chairman, Mrs. Rudy Gereau, Mrs. Martin Kousbaugh, Mrs. William Rogers, Mrs. Mike Washut, Mrs. Helmer Larson, Mrs. John Schwartz Jr., Mrs. June Barnes, Mrs. A. B. Bernier, Mrs. Herb Blowers and Mrs. James Moore.

Atoms For Industry Point Way To Many Benefits For Mankind

THE atom bomb has so long held the spotlight of public attention that it is refreshing to hear engineers speak of atomic energy as a useful force friendly to man, rather than to his destruction.

One of the many possible non-military applications of atomic energy was detailed to Michigan State Highway Department engineers in recent meeting in Escanaba.

Bryant W. Pocock, State Highway research engineer, said the time may come when small nuclear reactors will be spaced along Highway US-2 in the Upper Peninsula to keep it free of ice and snow.

Should this come true, and there is no reason to doubt that it will not, the benefits to man will be immediate and enormous.

Passenger autos and commercial transport on our highways will travel more safely and the cost of snow removal and ice control will save vast sums of money now expended—wasted really for no lasting public benefit accrues from plowing and sanding highways.

Science is now carrying out experiments in many fields in the industrial and commercial use of atomic energy in laboratories across the nation.

At University of Michigan, for example, "Project Phoenix" has been established with funds from the Atomic Energy Commission, the University, and contributions by the alumni to develop peacetime industrial uses for atomic energy.

Big Hand To

Senate Democrats

THE Democratic Party in the new Congress thus far is behaving like a party with a sense of responsibility.

On the important Senate Foreign Relations Committee they have installed Senators Humphrey of Minnesota and Mansfield of Montana. Though Humphrey's antics in domestic issues have caused some critics to dub him a "Boy Scout," he is wedded to collective security, support of the UN, and world cooperation. Mansfield, a former House member, is an acknowledged specialist in Far Eastern matters.

For the other key Senate committee, Armed Services, the Democrats thrust aside considerations of seniority which normally govern such choices, and picked able Senator Symington, the first Secretary of the Air Force and now a freshman in the upper chamber.

They also named Symington and two other promising beginners, Senators Kennedy of Massachusetts and Jackson of Washington, to the Committee on Government Operations, of which Senator McCarthy is chairman. These men certainly should help to produce a sane, balanced viewpoint on that powerful investigating committee.

The Doctor Says . . . Prompt Diagnosis, Treatment Often Rout Lobar Pneumonia

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

Perhaps there is nothing which so astonishes a physician who was in practice even as recently as 20 years ago as what has happened to lobar pneumonia. This formerly common infection of the lungs used to be known as the "old people's friend" because it so often proved an easy and painless final illness.

Today, lobar pneumonia is almost a rare disease, and when it does occur recovery is the rule. The speed with which this occurs is amazing to all those who remember what it used to be.

It is interesting, and even now important, to discuss this disease.

A typical case starts suddenly with a severe chill which may last for as long as half an hour. Soon after the chill, the temperature begins to go up and it rises rapidly to around 104 or 105 degrees. At the same time a person coming down with pneumonia may have general aches and pains with headache.

Pain in the chest or side like that which is present in pleurisy, is also common. Cough which produces pain, and does not bring up much mucus, starts early. The breathing becomes rapid and each breath is shallow.

These symptoms can be confused with other conditions, but are certainly suspicious of lobar pneumonia. Examination of the chest by a physician and especially Similar work is under way in many other laboratories in colleges and universities. The result will be an amazing advancement in knowledge needed to harness the atom for industry.

Atomic energy is a two-edged sword that can harm as well as help man. The present effort toward devising beneficial uses is most laudable, for in these uses all men can share and world civilization can be materially advanced.

Stonington Shows Neighborly Spirit

THE neighborly spirit once so much a part of community life in America is not dead; the days when kindly folk gathered to assist the unfortunate and console the bereaved are not forever past.

This tradition of friendly helpfulness is most evident in smaller towns and in the country, where life is closer to the realities of tragedy and sorrow. This is the expression of good people who know each other well.

At Stonington this coming Sunday evening, Jan. 25, the Bay de Noc Grange is sponsoring a benefit for one of its Stonington residents in the best tradition of neighborliness. The program will be held in Trinity Lutheran Church starting at 7:30.

The Grange benefit committee has expressed the hope that "through the social community may be of some material help to Mr. Kay."

Albert Kay, lifelong resident of Stonington and member of a pioneer family, lost his son, John, and daughter, Norma, when the Kay car plunged into open water of Little Bay de Noc while the young people were returning home across the ice from Escanaba.

The people of Stonington and Delta county have the opportunity to prove that the spirit of good neighborliness is still strong. Raymond Sundstrom is chairman of the Bay de Noc Grange benefit committee.

BRIDGE PROGRESS

(See Evening News)

Another step towards construction of the Straits of Mackinac Bridge was taken Tuesday.

The Mackinac Bridge Authority applied formally for approval of plans to build a four-mile bridge across the Straits. The application was submitted by Prentiss M. Brown, chairman of the authority, to the Detroit District of the Corps of Engineers.

This move is necessary because the bridge, of course, will cross navigable waters. Since the bridge affects navigation, the Corps of Engineers is expected to entertain any comments about the relationship of the bridge to shipping.

Last fall, when Brown spoke in the Sault to describe progress on the bridge, he said navigation interests at first were concerned over the effect of the supporting towers. However, the preference of two fixed towers over moving ferry boats seems to have overcome this objection, he said at that time.

Submitting plans for the Corps of Engineers' approval is, in a sense, perhaps a mere formality required by law.

However, it shows the progress being made towards accomplishing this dream of a bridge across the Straits of Mackinac.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Mamie Eisenhower has now had time to look around the White House and discover that she is mistress of a kitchen establishment which is the modern housewife's dream.

In fact, she is the mistress of a sort of entertainment factory, with three kitchens and several dining-rooms. She also faces the problem of feeding the President's staff, her own large retinue of servants, plus White House guests.

And there will be times when she will wish that Congress had acted on that last request of Harry Truman's to increase the White House expense allowance, because, unless she's extremely careful, she and the new President will find themselves dipping into their own pockets to pay for White House upkeep.

Another thing Mamie will find, after she gets settled, is that Sen. Kenneth McKellar, a bachelor and a parsimonious one at that, will cause her a lot of headaches. For the penny-pinching Senator from Tennessee, who presided over the White House appropriations committee, scripped on thermostat heat regulators. Thus the White House heat is not controlled by individual thermostats in each room, as in every modern hotel, but by a main thermostat.

This means that the sun-room upstairs where the Trumans liked to breakfast is like a refrigerator in the winter and a furnace in the summer.

What Mrs. Eisenhower seemed to like most when she inspected the White House with Mrs. Truman last month was the big cedar room on the third floor. For a moth-harassed housewife, this room is heaven. Every inch is lined with cedar, even the cabinets and drawers; and the room is plenty big enough to hold every piece of wool around the White House, including Ike's old army uniforms which have been a mecca for moths at Morningside Heights.

MAMIE'S KITCHEN

Mrs. Eisenhower didn't get a chance to inspect the White House kitchens when she looked over the place with Mrs. Truman, and they happen to be intriguing modern food factories.

The main kitchen is a huge room in the equivalent of the White House basement, and contains every imaginable modern device for food preparation. Most of this was installed by Mrs. Roosevelt and still is in excellent condition. A large electric range covers one side of the kitchen. There are also work tables with built-in warming trays, a large soup kettle, barbecue spit, coffee grinder, garbage disposal beneath gigantic sinks, and overhead utensil hangers.

The whole thing is entirely air-conditioned with special blowers to remove cooking odors. Mrs. Truman used to enjoy shooting out the servants and bringing her Spanish class down to the kitchen to cook onions, Spanish style, amid many odors which were not always absorbed by the blowers, however.

The kitchen contains no dishwashing facilities. All dishes are removed to a separate room. A special refrigerator room is on the far side of the kitchen, featuring a special cold locker for fish, plus a walk-in storage room.

Food for the first family is prepared in the big kitchen, hoisted on an electric dumb-waiter, and served from the first floor butler's pantry next to the President's private dining-room.

FOOD INSPECTED

In addition to the main kitchen, there's a small diet kitchen on the third floor about the size of the kitchen Mamie Eisenhower used at the Wardman Park Hotel where she lived during the war years. The third-floor kitchen is used for early morning coffee or a late night snack.

Kitchen No. 3 is under the west wing of the White House, and serves the so-called "luncheon club" or the President's staff. About 35 of Truman's male assistants lunched here every day, getting a bill at the end of the month for their food. Under Truman it was a strictly stag affair, with lady members of the President's staff required to lunch in restaurants outside or else bring their lunch to work.

Mamie Eisenhower will not be able to do much shopping in Washington markets, even if she has the time. All food for the first family is carefully tested in advance, and the grocery stores where the food is bought remains a security secret.

All food entering the White House is examined by experts, including the enormous quantities of gift turkeys, jams, prize corn, and watermelons that pour into the White House from admirers. All have to be examined by the Secret Service, no matter who the donor.

Something New Has Been Added

Painter In The Sky:

Bernt Balchen, Famed Aviator, Depicts Cold Beauty Of Arctic

By WARD CANNEL

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Col. Bernt Balchen, who has spent most of his life exploring the world's snow-caps, stood perspiring in the Grand Central Art Galleries.

"It's too warm here," he said. He wiped his red forehead with a white handkerchief.

Maybe it was too warm if you kept your eyes away from Balchen's water color paintings that lined the walls. But nearly everyone in the overheated room had to turn up his mind's collar.

The polar explorer was having his first art show. In brilliant blues and whites and reds and greens, he had pictured the relentless cold of the world's fringes — lands he has come to know well.

John Fischetti, NEA's editorial cartoonist, appraised the work this way:

"Balchen has worked a little too hard on some of these. A water color must be deft, quick delicate. Otherwise it looks like a postcard."

Was it poor art? "No. It's wonderful," Fischetti said. "There are just enough beauties here to tell you that this fellow is on his way up."

This fellow "on his way up" as an artist is the same Balchen who won the Congressional Medal in 1929 for being the first pilot to fly over the South Pole. He'd been with explorers Amundsen, Byrd and Ellsworth. He flew the Atlantic in 1927 and in the war skies of 1941-45.

Balchen has been "up" in aviation for a long while. The first since Lafayette in the American Revolution, the Colonel became an American citizen by a special act of Congress.

Most of the scenes in the one-man art show were aerial views.

For the most part, he had done his scenes from his airplane. He could remember the altitude of each like a man remembering where he'd parked his car. "Oh yes," said the Colonel. "This one I made at 21,000 feet."

He was looking at the picture of a frigid world where mountains of snow and claws of ice extended into the cold horizon.

He throws away about three per cent of his original sketches. The others he will work over and over again.

COL. BERNT BALCHEN: It was too warm in the galleries.

Of course, he admitted, there were drawbacks to altitude painting. The water color itself would freeze in the sub-zero cold. He had to use two sets of color and keep the water warm next to his body. And even then, the paint would freeze on the paper.

He would turn the controls over to his co-pilot. Then sketch his view, mark in the color, and check his position and altitude on a map.

Back at his easel, Colonel Balchen would set about the business of doing a complete painting from his map, sketch and memory.

"I've had to work very hard on some of these," he explained. "But of course, a few came"—he made a fist and exploded it open—"like that!"

Balchen has "played with painting" all his life. But not until 1948 did he take it seriously. He read a few books, made a few sketches of his beloved Norway, and went to work at water color. He throws away about three per cent of his original sketches. The others he will work over and over again.

So They Say

American labor traditions are beginning to be honored in the miserable labor lines in Asia. The effect on feudal Asia promises to be revolutionary.—William O. Douglas Supreme Court Justice.

We cannot afford to permit Russia to fill the power vacuums of the world. In other words we cannot afford not to build an empire.—Dr. S. Grover Rich, political scientist, University of Utah.

We have reached a time when we ought to leave off namecalling and try to get down to a real understanding and unity behind our foreign program.—Sen. Estes Kefauver.

It would be foolish to be impressed by the few large-scale construction projects of a totalitarian state.—Otto Dibelius, Evangelical Bishop of Berlin.

In the past 15 years increased production per acre has given us the equivalent of 64 million acres. This can be attributed to research and better technology.—Sen. Clinton Anderson of New Mexico.

If (Russia) has solved the problem of firing an atomic weapon from the deck of a submarine, this fleet creates a serious threat to our port cities.—Gen. James Doolittle.

Good shoulders seem to go with beautiful faces. Pou seldom see a beautiful face, you seldom see a fine shoulders.—Clothes designer Howard Shoup.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

THE SEQUEL—Delta county persons and organizations responded wholeheartedly to the appeal of Pvt. Kenneth Beaudoin for gifts to help make Christmas a happy time for the children of Korea.

Pvt. Beaudoin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Med Beaudoin of Escanaba, made his appeal through this column, and the sequel is a thank you letter from the commanding officer of his company, received by those in Delta county who made contributions to the Christmas party for Korean war orphans.

"Our request was answered with more than a ton of clothes, toys, soap and other items," writes Capt. R. G. Thomas.

"It was through your efforts that Dec. 25, 1952, became Christmas to 205 Korean children instead of just another day. You became Santa Claus to kids who have always been denied the things that Santa Claus and Christmas stand for.

"The children from Namgwang Orphanage were brought to the company on Christmas afternoon. They presented their own entertainment program and were served a meal in this unit's mess hall.

"Children are children and their parties are just about the same everywhere so I think you can visualize our party as well, if not better, than I could describe it. The important thing is the children enjoyed their party and were grateful for their gifts, of that you can be certain."

Capt. Thomas expressed appreciation for the many gifts received from the people of Delta county.

MANY HELPERS—The response to the appeal letter written by Pvt. Beaudoin was immediate and generous.

The VFW Auxiliary of Escanaba sent 190 pounds of clothing, toys and other gifts for the war orphans of Korea. Mrs. E. J. Kallio, chairman of the VFW committee in charge of the collection, received a thank you letter from Capt. Thomas which was read at a recent meeting of the Auxiliary.

Mrs. Grover Gosnell of 1428 N. 16th St., who had sent gifts, also received a letter of appreciation.

"I am very grateful to know that our boys even remember these little children who would otherwise go hungry and cold," Mrs. Gosnell said. "I feel so happy now to think that I had done a little to help their Christmas party."

There were many other persons in the Delta community who sent gifts. No doubt they share the feeling of having contributed something toward a tangible expression of Christian humanity.

SIGN OF SPRING—This may be the first robin report of 1953 for this area. Certainly it is the first sign of spring, so-called, and deserves mention.

On Thursday of this week at the Walter Gagnon home, West Ford River, a robin sat in the melting snow in the yard and chirped. Fact is, it chirped several times.

Should the Northern Michigan winters become increasingly less severe there is the possibility that we will never have what is described as a "first" robin. There will be robins the year around, through January as well as June.

FROM THE PEOPLE—The people of Wells Township are to be commended for the cooperative spirit they are displaying in the proposed program of school building construction.

Through private citizens and PTA organizations the movement for school construction to relieve over-crowding grew from a sincere interest in the school program.

The people, about 100 strong, met with the Board of Education and the Township Board to discuss the problem. There was free and open discussion and out of it came a positive program of action.

Still in the formative stages, the school building plan will, when completed, be thoroughly understood and widely accepted. Wells township people are showing the way to those in other communities who realize the need but have failed to do anything about it.

Power With Words

By Dr. C. E. Funk

(Only questions of general interest will be answered.)

possessive.—"Please tell me which of the following is correct: 'Brown & Jones' letter of the 10th,' or 'Brown & Jones's letter of the 10th.'—Miss N. J. Paterson, N. J.

The form "Brown & Jones's letter" is correct. The rule is: "Singular nouns of one syllable ending in a sibilant (s, x, ce, se, or ge) add the apostrophe and s, except when the following word begins with a sibilant." Thus we would write, "Jones's letter," or "Dix's coat," but would write, "the Brown & Jones' sign," or "a fox's skin."

mesne assignment.—"What is the meaning of mesne assignment in connection with a patent assignment?"—J. R. B.—Bay City, Mich.

Mesne, a legal term, means "intermediate." Consequently, a mesne assignment of a patent is any assignment or assignments between the one who first held it and the last one to whom it was assigned.

TEEN TALK

BY VIVIAN BROWN

So you want to be beautiful, pretty, charming, adorable, sweet and glamorous to the rest of the world. A small order, but if that's your main wish for 1953, now is the time to wrap the little nuggets of wishful thinking in their glittery sequins and strive to keep your New Year's resolutions.

Here's the way to take out that beauty insurance that will pay dividends in the future. So start paying premiums into your glamor bank now. Here's how:

1. Hands and Nails . . . This is the time to train nails to grow in a pretty shape. Every time you wash your hands, push your nail cuticle back gently with the towel.

A buffer is a fine idea for smoothing the nails, although some consider this method old-fashioned. If you have the time, it's an excellent way to keep your fingernails smooth and pretty.

Use an emery board, not a metal file to shape the nails, and do not round them at the corners if you want to avoid hangnails.

If nails are brittle, drink more milk and eat foods beneficial to healthy nails.

Keep hands smoothed in winter by remembering to rub oil, lotion or special hand creams into them after washing dishes or after hands have been exposed to cold.

2. Skin and Complexion . . . Bathe often to remove impurities from pores. Use soap lavishly.

Use a pumice stone on sole calluses. Rub heels with stiff well-soaped brush.

Wash face with soap in gentle fashion. One skin expert advises rubbing good soap directly on the face. His method is excellent, and he suggests rubbing the soap on face and neck, massaging it in with palms of hands, and then rinsing off with the same soapy water.

At the first sign of a skin blemish, attempt to find the cause. If you've been gorging yourself with candies, pastries, and soda pop, avoid them for a while, along with pastries, gravies and other rich foods. Concentrate on green vegetables, lean meat, salad and potato until your skin looks normal.

3. Your figure . . . It is easy to take off an extra pound or two, but if you let ounces roll into pounds and wait until your excess weight is ten pounds or more, the reducing job will be a miserable chore. If it is just a question of a few pounds, these can be lost usually by giving up starches, fats and sweets for a week or so until your weight is back to normal.

4. Your Hair . . . A good haircut and daily hair brushings are important to hair grooming. If your hair is shaped nicely it will be easy to set each evening, and if it is curled every day you should not need a permanent wave. Frequent shampoos are necessary to the health of your hair.

5. Grooming Pattern . . . Fastidiousness is important if you wish to be charming. Stockings seams must be kept straight, anchored properly. Heels can't be run-down; lifts should be repaired at the first sign of strain. Slips should be kept at the length that will never show below dress or skirt. All accessories such as handbags and gloves should be kept clean and in repair. White accessories are prettier if kept crisp and bright white. The little time involved in washing and ironing them shouldn't tempt you to wear them a second time to escape the minor laundry chore.

6. Make Your Time Count . . . Vivacious people are busy people. Don't develop a mopey attitude toward life. Cultivate interesting people and your awareness of others will help stamp you as a personality girl. Be a good listener and you will never bore people. A hobby will keep you entertained and help make friends.

Youth is the time to learn about people. You can formulate impressions about characters and types that will be handy information in future years when real tests of friendships need to be made.

Vary your vegetable routine! Cook thinly sliced celery and coarsely shredded cabbage together and serve with butter or white sauce. Baked Hubbard squash, cut in half and filled with green peas also makes a delicious combination.

John M. Haffert, Noted Author, Will Lecture Here

John M. Haffert, author of the book, "Russia Will Be Converted" and editor of Soul magazine, will speak here Sunday Feb. 8, at 8 p. m. at William Bonifas Auditorium, under the auspices of St. Bridget's Circle of St. Patrick's Church. Mr. Haffert makes the prediction that a spiritual change is taking place in the world which may mature in time to prevent World War III.

On Oct. 13, 1951, Mr. Haffert spoke at Fatima in Portugal when over a million people, including newsmen from all parts of the world, were present for the closing of the Holy Year. He spoke from the steps of the Basilica for five minutes on the subject "Russia Will Be Converted", the same topic on which he will speak here. Forty-one Bishops and five Cardinals attended, including America's Bishop Sheen who said afterwards, "It was the greatest religious event in the history of the modern world." Mr. Haffert was the only lay speaker that day.

Mr. Haffert, son of a newspaper publisher, was born in southern New Jersey in 1915. He spent 17 years in public and private schools, majored in philosophy and mastered six languages. He has subsequently written five books, three of which became best sellers in their field, and has acquired international fame as a speaker. In the United States alone, between 1945 and 1948, he spoke in person not counting radio listeners, to over a million people who flocked to halls in most principal cities to hear him. His eloquence has often been likened to that of Bishop Fulton J. Sheen.

Magazine Editor

Today he is the editor of Soul, one of America's most widely read religious periodicals, and American national commander of the Blue Army, an association dedicated to the conversion of Russia with more than one million signed members in this country.

Mr. Haffert's book, which he wrote between the years of 1946 and 1950 predicts peace without war on the assumption that enough people will unite in prayer and obtain the favor of Russian conversion and peace from God, as predicted by Our Lady of Fatima.

On October 19, 1952, Mr. Haffert was privileged to see, face to face, the only survivor of the three children who saw our Lady of Fatima. He is the only living American layman ever to have had this opportunity. He first saw her in 1946, when he was with her more than four hours, and on Oct. 18 of this past year, he saw her once again. She now is a Carmelite nun, living as Sister Lucia, in the Carmelite Cloister in Coimbra, Portugal.

Closing of Holy Year

In his lecture here, Mr. Haffert will tell of two extraordinary cures which he saw with his own eyes at Fatima, photographs of which appear in his book. "You cannot see something like that," he has said, "and not have hope that the same Great Power can and will convert Russia."

A full color picture of the closing of the Holy Year at Fatima (Oct. 13, 1951) will be presented with commentary by Mr. Haffert. This superb technicolor film was made by two different photographers, one American and one French, and is shown only in this one program.

Smart Woman Is Mum On Diet

By ALICIA HART

It's good for you to talk about what's uppermost in your mind, but if you're on a diet and that's your main preoccupation, select carefully the person you discuss it with. Another dieter or your mother—and, of course, your doctor—will be interested, but no one else will.

It's deadly boring to hear about what someone else can or cannot eat. Whether it's diabetes, indigestion, ulcers, or obesity or any thing else that is causing your food limitations, keep them to yourself unless asked.

It's destructive to charm to let a man take you to an expensive restaurant and then refuse the house specialties because they're fattening or otherwise in conflict with your diet. Explain to him in advance that you'd rather go another time because you can't appreciate the food at present.

Even in your own dining room, it doesn't add to the charm of the dinner table conversation to discuss diet restrictions. If you're cooking with your diet in mind or the special needs of other members of the family, don't point out that the food is "good for you." Say, if anything, that the food is "good." This helps everyone to approach the meal with greater relish.

When you're out with your women friends, aren't you bored when they talk about their diets when you're not on one? Remember that if you feel inclined to rid yourself of anxieties about your weight and figure measurements, the person to talk to is your doctor.

Mrs. K. F. Harrington, 716 Bay St., left this morning for Evans-ton, Ill., to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Lee, and their son, William Springer Lee, who was born Dec. 29 in Lake Forest Hospital. Mrs. Lee is the former Joann Harrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meunier are leaving Saturday morning for Peshtigo to spend the weekend at the J. B. Meunier home and with Mrs. Meunier, who suffered a stroke Wednesday and is a patient at Marinette General Hospital. The elder Mrs. Meunier is the mother of both Henry and Dewey Meunier of this city.

Today's Recipes

Creamy Tomato Soup

Ingredients: 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 6 tablespoons nonfat dry milk powder, 2 cups water, 1 1/4 cups (one 10 1/2-ounce can) tomato puree, 3/4 to 1 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, dash of ground allspice, 2 teaspoons finely grated onion (pulp and juice).

Method: In a medium-size heavy saucepan over low heat, melt butter. Blend in flour, then nonfat milk. Remove from heat. Add water gradually, stirring with a whisk until smooth after each addition. Return white sauce to medium heat and cook and stir constantly until thickened slightly. In a small saucepan heat tomato puree so it is as hot as white sauce. Vigorously stir tomato puree into white sauce. Add salt, pepper to taste, allspice and onion. Reheat gently, stirring. Serve at once. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Molasses Candy Corn

Ingredients: 1 cup old-fashioned molasses, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 3 quarts unsalted popped corn.

Method: Mix molasses, sugar and butter in saucepan. Place over low heat and stir until sugar is dissolved. Cook over medium heat until syrup, when dropped in cold water separates into threads that are brittle, or until candy thermometer reaches 270F. Pour syrup over popped corn; toss lightly. Makes 3 quarts candy corn.

Floors must be thoroughly rinsed before waxing. Detergent left on floor will soften wax and make it smeary.

AS WE LIVE

First Move In New Home Is To Form Friendships

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D. People get used to living in one kind of environment and it is then very hard for them to adjust to a new one. This problem becomes more and more difficult with each passing year. What should the woman do who wrote:

"I have been happily married more than 10 years. Late-ly, we moved in my husband's sister's home. He is very close to her and his brother-in-law and I feel left out. I come from the city and we are now in the country. I am very lonesome for all my friends. I told my husband we should move back to the city. At first, he was willing but now, when I mention it, he tells me I'll get used to it and that it cost his sister a lot to fix up the place for us. I just can't stand it here any more. What can I do?"

(A) Are you sure it is the country you dislike as much as not having your own home and re-senting the close relationship of unpleasant factors that all contribute to your unhappiness.

Was it necessary for your husband to move in with his sister? Did he have to cut down on living expenses or did his work bring him out in the country? If there was a real necessity back of your moving, then it is up to you to accept it.

You, of course, should have been consulted about the move and should have been given an opportunity to visit your sister-in-law's home before you made the move to see if you would be happy there.

In time, you will get used to living in another person's home, in an environment so different from what you have been accustomed to, and you will make friends with the neighbors and people you meet at church or other community affairs.

However, it will never be quite the same as having your old friends or your own home in a familiar environment. Until this period of adjustment is over, and you see if you can "get used to" living in the country, make no further requests to move. But, after reasonable time, if you are still unhappy, move back to the city even if it means a financial sacrifice.

Dr. Hurlock is author of 12 books on psychology. Her advice in this column is free. Write her in care of this newspaper.

83rd Congress Has Deadlines

By Congressional Quarterly
WASHINGTON — Expiration dates for a lot of major legislation will fall during the first session of the 83rd Congress in 1953.

As a result Congressmen will be forced to wrestle with the issues involved while at the same time working on new legislation and making changes in old laws. Expiring measures include:

The import duty on foreign copper, presently suspended, will again become effective on Feb. 15, 1953, unless Congress acts otherwise.

The President's authority to propose reorganization of executive agencies as recommended by the Hoover Commission. Expires April 1, 1953.

President's Emergency Powers. Expires April 1, 1953.

Controls Expire April 30

Price and wage controls, plus rent controls in critical defense housing areas and in areas that extended controls by local option, as provided in the Defense Production Act. Expire April 30, 1953.

Allowances for dependents of armed forces enlisted personnel. Expires April 30, 1953.

The Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act. Expires June 12, 1953. Present agreements under the act expire Jan. 1, 1954, at which time, if the act is not renewed, Smoot-Hawley tariff rates will go back into effect. Most tariffs are at present from 50 to 75 per cent below Smoot-Hawley rates.

The Defense Production Act. Expires June 30, 1953. In addition to the wage, rent and price controls provisions which expire earlier, the act also provides for allocation of defense materials.

Veterans legislation providing direct loans and insurance of loans for home building by veterans. Expires June 30, 1953.

Authority given to states to define "disability" for purposes of Social Security benefits. Expires June 30. Unless Congress passes new legislation or extends present provisions, no disability payments will be made under Social Security after that date.

Foreign Aid Deadline
Foreign economic, military and technical aid. Expires June 30, 1953.

Appropriations expire June 30, 1953.

Excess-profits tax on corporate earnings. Expires June 30, 1953.

President's authority to control exports. Expires June 30, 1953.

Authority to award defense contracts on negotiated rather than on advertised basis. Expires June 30, 1953.

The drafting of doctors and dentists for military service. Expires July 1, 1953.

President's authority to order reserve components to active duty for 24 months. Expires July 1, 1953.

Authority to extend armed forces enlistments. Expires July 1, 1953.

Present tax rate on individual and corporate incomes. Expires Dec. 31, 1953. Unless new legislation is passed before that date, former lower rates automatically become effective.

Authority to renegotiate defense contracts. Expires Dec. 31, 1953.

The Mexican labor law, usually known as the "Wetback Act." Provides travel allowances for Mexican farm laborers who enter the U. S. for seasonal employment and return to Mexico before specified dates. Expires Dec. 31, 1953.

Burglars Peeved
KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Burglars battered open a safe in a Knoxville factory office, found it empty, blew their tops.

"Why didn't you leave some money in this thing?" asked a note they left behind yesterday. Still angry, they apparently set fire to some sawdust in the boiler room.

Firemen found the note atop the safe.

Bang Business Booms; Blame On Mamie

SWITCH IN TIME (but which?) will convert Washington model Edna Di Shong to Mamie-style bangs. "Falsie" bangs clip on.

By PATTI SIMMONS

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Put the blame on "Mamie" boys.

That boost in the bang business which most Washington beauticians, hair stylists and department stores are ready for is apt to go straight to the hair foreheads in the country.

Already capital official wives who want to imitate Mamie Eisenhower can buy "falsie" bangs, only a block and a half from the White House, in the town's swankiest department store.

A cute coiffured type, wearing bangs, explains that converting to the fringe on top costs anywhere from $15 to $25 unless, of course, you decide to settle for bargain bangs (pin curl design) at $13.50.

Budget-minded males will be relieved to hear that the little woman can be fashionably Republican and still stay in the $15 bracket where she has a choice of a puff cluster, combination bang roll bang, curl bang or soft wave bang.

The dean of Washington hairdressers, a graying Gallic who goes by the name of Emile, has not been caught napping where his one-time customer Mrs. Eisenhower is concerned.

He plans to meet the bang build up with a proper French touch. Customers will be invited for a forehead fitting. No two foreheads are exactly alike. So personalized bangs are the answer. Mais non? In two or three days Madame will have her Mamie Eisenhower bangs (or whatever style looks chic) ready to snap on or off with an invisible clip.

If the First Lady decides to call

CAPITAL HAIRDRESSER Emile, Jr., helps Edna decide.

Emile to the White House to dress her famous bangs again, it won't be the first time he's wielded a comb inside the Executive Mansion. During the Teddy Roosevelt reign the deft and dapper hair designer was summoned there to concoct the wedding day coiffure of daughter Alice.

In his 46 years in this town Emile has seen plenty of Washington big wigs with their hair up.

During one or another administration patrons have included Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, the Duchess of Windsor, Mrs. Bernard Baruch, Mrs. Borden Harriman, the late Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean of Hope Diamond fame, Minister Perle Mesta and a long list of cabinet, congressional, generals' and admirals' wives.

Best customer? Mrs. Morris Carter who has her hair done three times a week.

Most famous patron was, of all people, a man. He was President Abraham Lincoln's son, Robert, who came regularly to have his beard trimmed. One Russian Ambassador used to have Emile taper his hair—back in the days before beauty shops were considered Capitalist institutions.

Mamie Eisenhower's hair style dates back to the days of knight-hood and castle page boys first came up with the idea of wearing bangs. It's flattering, it's feminine, says Emile. And, naturellement—it's French.

FLAT - CURLED version of MAMIE bangs pleases Edna.

U. P. State Fair

At a meeting of the board of managers of the Upper Peninsula State Fair held at the Fort Shelby Hotel in Detroit this week, Ben D. Miller was elected chairman of the board of managers, it was announced by Ray La Porte, secretary-manager. Mr. Miller, who has been a member of the board for the past two years, is well known in the Upper Peninsula and has operated a department store in Hancock for many years.

In other business transacted R. E. Allingham of Escanaba was appointed vice chairman. Other members of the board attending the annual convention of the Michigan Association of Fairs included N. J. Nicks of Munising, Victor Lemmer of Ironwood and A. G. Phillips of St. Ignace.

At the conclusion of the meetings Mr. Miller announced that plans for entertainment for the 1953 fair, to be held from August 18 to August 23, were virtually complete and that this year's show will be outstanding both from the standpoint of originality and diversity.

Announcement was also made of the fact that since 1953 marks the 25th anniversary of the U. P. State Fair and that a special silver jubilee program is being planned.

be released immediately.

Troopers Move In

Shortly thereafter the convicts shouted they were willing to give up and started dropping the guns and ammunition from the windows. The guards emerged "without a scratch" from the building. Five were taken to their homes and one Paul Genger, was removed to the prison hospital. He was not injured but appeared suffering from nervous exhaustion.

State police then converged on the building and the convicts returned to their cells without a word.

Quick Approval Seen For Defense Secretary holds even an indirect financial interest.

Legal Ban Removed

Chairman Saltonstall (R-Mass) summoned Wilson to a closed session of the Senate Armed Services Committee today. Saltonstall said the Cabinet designee would "clarify" his previous testimony that he would not give up his GM stock and would deal, as secretary, with the firm he once headed.

Saltonstall told a reporter he believes this anticipated switch in Wilson's stand will win him approval by the committee. Senators Byrd (D-Va.), who first cited the legal ban, and Russell (D-Ga.) agreed.

"I hope the Senate will follow the recommendation of the armed services committee," Saltonstall said.

Most senators who could be reached seemed to think that it would, although a few expressed some reservations. In any event, considerable debate appeared likely if and when the appointment goes to the Senate floor. That probably will not be until sometime next week.

Will Lose $600,000

Eisenhower's formal nomination of Wilson, announced at 7:25 last night, at least brought to a head the controversy which has confronted the new Republican administration with its first crisis.

The brief announcement by White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said:

"The President has sent to the Senate the nomination of Charles E. Wilson as secretary of defense. Mr. Wilson visited the President this evening and volunteered his intention to dispose of all his stock in General Motors."

There was some indirect indication that the President had a hand in Wilson's decision. A Republican senator who declined to be quoted by name said the former GM president had, right up to the White House conference, maintained his refusal to sell the stock.

Wilson is said to have told the Senate committee, at a hearing held before his formal nomination, that his GM stock is worth about 2 1/2 million dollars and that he would lose as much as $600,000 in taxes by selling it now.

The announcement that Wilson would sell the stock he now holds brought words of praise from a number of senators.

Churchill Winds Up West Indies Vacation

NEW YORK (AP) — Winston Churchill bundled together his papers, has painted and his family today and boarded the liner Queen Mary for England after a West Indies vacation.

The British prime minister, looking fit and rested, told newsmen on the gangway of the big Cunard liner:

"We had a very good journey and passed a pleasant fortnight in the sunshine — a little rest, a little change."

He was accompanied by Mrs. Churchill, their daughter, Mrs. Christopher Soames, and son-in-law, Capt. Soames.

kind of job he would take and couldn't make a decision for some time on the many offers he has received.

"But I won't do anything that would reflect on, or commercialize, the great office I have held," he said.

At the present time, he added, he does not consider there is any possibility that he will run for congress, and he doesn't think that he will seek any office again.

Would Like Long Rest

What he would like to do is to get away with Mrs. Truman and his daughter Margaret for a long rest. After all, he pointed out, practically everybody else who participated in last year's hectic political campaign has done so.

The most noticeable thing about Truman when you run into him in Jackson County nowadays is the absence of the Secret Service bodyguard that surrounded him when he was president.

But he does have two bodyguards, both former members of Battery D. of the 35th Division's 129th Field Artillery which Truman commanded in France in 1918.

They are Sgt. Arthur Bell, a member of the state highway patrol who was assigned to guard Truman during a period of adjustment, and Lt. Fred Rolfers, of the Kansas City police department, to look after him when he goes into Kansas City.

Congressional Quiz

By Congressional Quarterly

1. Q—When may the newly-elected Congressmen start using their franking privilege (postage free mail)?

A—They may do so immediately, even though their terms have not started. However, they must provide their own stationery. Each Representative gets a stationery allowance of $800 a session. But he can't use it until sworn in.

2. Q—Who presides over the Senate in the absence of the Vice President and pending election of a President pro tempore?

A—The Secretary of the Senate, or, if he is absent, the Chief Clerk of the Senate. This will be the case in the new Senate, unless officers are elected immediately, since Kenneth D. McKellar (D-Tenn.), who held the post of President pro tempore, was defeated in his state primary.

3. Q—What will be the first order of business after organization of the 83rd Congress?

A—A meeting in joint session for the official count of the electoral votes for President and Vice President. By law this joint session will take place on Jan. 6.

4. Q—What will be the final messages transmitted to Congress by President Truman?

A—The State of the Union and the budget messages, and the economic report. Incidentally, President-elect Eisenhower outlines his legislative program to Congress shortly after inauguration, as he has indicated he may, there will be two State of the Union messages in January.

5. Q—How is the current $9 billion military construction program going?

A—Not too well, according to a report issued Dec. 19 by a Subcommittee of the House Committee on Expenditures in the Executive Department. The House group said there were "too many firings" in the building program. The Armed Services were criticized for waste, lack of standardization and "plush furnishings."

HERE'S AN EASY WAY TO Make Money at Home
WITH THE HELP OF THE WANT ADS.

Every home contains good used items — no longer needed or wanted — that can be sold for budget-boosting cash with a fast-acting little Want Ad in the

Escanaba Daily Press

Why not check through your home right away? Selling articles with the classified ads is an easy way to bring in extra cash — cash for new clothes, sporting equipment or for a thousand and one other things you've been wanting to buy.

1 Start your real-life treasure hunt in your attic, traditional storehouse for lamps, rugs, highchairs or what have you. Those "dust-gatherers" may be just what other families are looking for.

2 Your basement, too, may hold such cash-worthy items as golf clubs, pieces of furniture, appliances, bicycles and the like — space "taker-uppers" that can bring $$$$ from Want Ad readers.

3 By no means forget your closets. Check for tennis racquets, musical instruments, baby strollers and the many other money-makers.

4 Whether it's tires or garden tools, lawn mower or lawn sower, remember to look in your garage for treasures of value.

70 Riders Entered In Ski Tournament Sunday Afternoon

Seventy skiers from northern Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula have entered the second annual junior ski tournament here Sunday afternoon, it is announced by Arthur Allen, chairman in charge.

Jumping events, sanctioned by the Central Ski Association, will begin at 2 p. m. on the new junior hill near Jamestown Slough, a

Elks Youth Unit Urges Support Of March Of Dimes

The youth activities committee of Manistique Lodge No. 632, B. P. O. E., is urging liberal support of the March of Dimes campaign in Schoolcraft County, it is announced by Alan Walter, chairman.

In a statement issued yesterday Walter said:

"Everyone has, at some time or another, seen a child limping with braces or crutches. Immediately a surge of pity goes out to the little one, and an unconscious prayer is said that no personal acquaintances will be subjected to the crippling effects of a ravaging disease. The power of prayer is not to be denied; however, benefits from donations also must be recognized.

"Our community has been spared any epidemics of polio, but nobody can predict where the disease will strike next. For this reason, plus personal mercy for the thousands already stricken, responsibility for curbing the dread disease of polio must be shouldered by every person capable of assistance.

"The Youth Activities Committee of the Elks Club urges contributions be made to protect your own children, and restore thousands of others to a normal, healthy childhood. Keep in mind that not one single person, including you yourself, can be assured of not having polio in the future. Care and recovery depends on you, so buy insurance for the future by contributing heavily now."

Missionary Film Of Congo Area To Be Shown Sunday

A colored film of the Congo, "Regions Beyond," will be shown at 11:15 a. m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church in Gulliver and at 7:30 Sunday evening at the Bethel Baptist Church in Manistique.

The movie tells the poignant, thrilling story of a young missionary couple who dared to take the Gospel into dangerous jungles. The picture is a powerful appeal for missionary volunteers, with no reference being made to any specific missionary organization.

Death Calls Aged Manistique Woman

Mrs. Elizabeth McCauley, 75, a resident of Manistique for nearly a half a century, died at 5:45 p. m. yesterday in Newberry. She had been ill for several years.

She was born April 18, 1877, in Michigan City, Indiana. After coming to Manistique about 50 years ago she was married to John McCauley who died 10 years ago. She was a member of St. Francis de Sales Church.

There are no known survivors. The body is at the Kefauver and Jackson Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

K-C's Meet Monday Evening At Garden

The Manistique Council of the Knights of Columbus will meet at 8 p. m. Monday at Marygrove Retreat House, Garden, it is announced.

Following the business session a fish fry and entertainment will take place at the Garden town hall. Members planning to attend will meet at the K-C hall, River St., and cars will leave for Garden at 7:45 p. m. Transportation for those without rides will be provided.

The fish fry will be under the direction of Eugene Bernier and Alfred LaValle, of Garden.

Weather Threatens Skating Program

Another day of weather like yesterday may ruin the ice in Central Park rinks, making the holding of ice carnival events Saturday afternoon and Sunday evening impossible, it was reported yesterday afternoon by H. W. Heideman, city manager.

Warm weather Wednesday and Thursday, Heideman reported, has extensively damaged the ice surface in both the hockey and general skating rinks. Unless the temperature drops below freezing today and tonight, there will be no ice for the skating events.

State Savings Re-Elects Staff

Officers and directors of the State Savings Bank were re-elected at annual meetings this week, it is announced by Wm. J. Shinar, president.

The following directors were re-elected to office at a stockholders' meeting Tuesday: G. H. Burrell, August Carlson, E. G. Carlstrom, E. E. Cookson, Frank Hartman, R. G. Hentschell, Wm. J. Shinar and Russell Watson.

At a directors' meeting yesterday the following officers were re-elected:

President, Wm. J. Shinar; vice president, E. E. Cookson; cashier, H. Keith Bundy; assistant cashier, Leonard Males.

Satisfactory progress during the past year was reported by the president in his annual statement Tuesday to stockholders.

Brother Of Local Woman Is Called

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Weber returned Wednesday from Trenton, near Detroit, where they attended funeral services for Mrs. Weber's brother, Jerome Redmond, who died Jan. 13.

Jerome Redmond, who was known to many Manistique persons, was born April 1, 1888, in Cheboygan, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Redmond. He was a policeman at River Rouge Park for 10 years and for the past 20 years he worked at the Solvay Chemical Co. plant in Wyandotte.

He was a veteran of World War I, serving with the famous Red Arrow Division in France. He was a member of the American Legion, VFW and the DAV.

He was a patient at a veterans hospital in Dearborn for four months prior to his death.

He is survived by two daughters, Margaret and Evelyn; two brothers, Ted, of River Rouge and John, of Detroit; and three sisters, Mrs. Grace Taylor, of Inkster, Mrs. Faye Timmons, of Detroit, and Mrs. Anton Weber, of Manistique.

His wife died 10 years ago. Military services were held Jan. 16 in Trenton.

Red Vets Recalled

HONG KONG (AP)—Communist soldiers who were demobilized two years ago in South China's Kwangtung province and who are still under 35 are being called back to active service, according to reports from Canton. The newspaper Kung Sheung Jih Pao said in a Canton dispatch that about 2,500 recalled soldiers have been sent there for training.

Armed Runaways Reported Headed Back To Wisconsin

Four armed South Milwaukee youths in a stolen car, hunted Wednesday in the Upper Peninsula, are believed to have headed back to Wisconsin, it was reported here yesterday by Manistique state police.

Further investigation by police here yesterday disclosed that the four, one of them a minor girl, had stopped a second time for gas in Manistique early Wednesday morning, apparently traveling west. Police search in the peninsula, however, is being continued. Wisconsin police also have been alerted.

The four had stopped at a local service station early Tuesday evening, traveling east, and later were seen at the state ferry docks in St. Ignace.

Local state police also learned yesterday that the four had visited for some time Tuesday afternoon in Manistique where one of them, James Martin, formerly lived and still has relatives.

The other three were Robert Scholtz, Ronald Yortin and Donna Heolena.

South Milwaukee authorities advised state police here Wednesday that the four were runaway juveniles, were armed with two pistols, and were traveling in a stolen green Buick bearing Wisconsin plates D76832.

Police investigation yesterday also revealed that the girl in the group had tried to dispose of some jewelry in a local store Tuesday afternoon.

Girl Teller's Spunk Foils Bank Robber

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—While she lasted, Miss Eleanor Ramish, 23, showed a lot of spunk toward a man who tried to hold her up in the bank where she is employed as a teller.

"He was rugged and about 6 feet 4 inches tall," she told police. He handed her a note demanding all the cash and displayed a pistol.

"That gun doesn't look real to me," she said.

"It's real enough," the man replied.

"I still don't believe it's real," replied Miss Ramish.

And at this juncture, "the floor gave way and I went down behind the counter," to use the teller's own words.

The bump roused her and she called the chief teller, but the thwarted holdup man escaped.

Eskymos Invade Ishpeming Tonight; Hematites Lead Great Lakes Title Race

The Ishpeming Hematites, top quint in the Great Lakes Conference standings, defending Upper Peninsula Class B champions and a perennial cage powerhouse, provide the opposition for Coach Burl Gustafson's Escanaba Eskymos tonight.

Kessler's Wins First Cage Tilt

Kessler's Bar made a successful debut in the City League basketball scene last night by posting a 61-56 victory over Al's Tavern.

Don "Bevo" Lewis, former Al's cager, led Kessler's with a 41-point scoring blast. His total set a new high for the season in City League play. Don Paulin paced Al's with 15 points.

Kessler's led throughout the game and sported a three-point edge at halftime.

Skinny's Bar ran into a hot Gladstone Marble Arms quint and staved off a last quarter rally to win 47-43. Tom St. Germain led Skinny's in the scoring column with 23 points while Bob Anderson paced Gladstone with 17.

In the windup league-leading Harnischfeger posted its fifth straight victory by burying Paper Mill 57-21. Center Phil Cretten tossed in 13 points to set the scoring pace for the Harnies.

Super Fireman Role For Black

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Brooklyn Manager Chuck Dressen has a super fire chief's role designed for his mound ace, Joe Black.

As a rookie last season, Joe was the team's fireman, the relief pitcher who tossed cold water on opposing batsmen when they started to get hot.

Then in a surprise move, with various ailments besetting most of the usual starters, Chuck tossed Joe in to face the New York Yankees in the opening game of the World Series. He won that one and pitched good ball in two losses despite the series pressure. So Chuck figures Joe will be a starting pitcher this season, but also counts on him for some relief work.

"He could take over starting jobs when we need him, then on occasion with a day's rest, he could relieve," Chuck explained.

The Dodger skipper made his remarks before leaving for a banquet at Decatur, Ill., Thursday night. Dressen delivered the main address at the Staley Manufacturing Co. award dinner. Dressen, who jumped into pro ball after playing for Staley, told the crowd this year's pennant chase "will be a tough one."

He figures the 1953 National race will be between the Dodgers and New York Giants again, plus the Philadelphia Phillies and St. Louis Cardinals.

Sports Roundup

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Luis Angel Firpo, the "Bull of the Pampas" in the golden '20s, was watching the current crop of boxers do their stuff at a local gym.

"Very few good heavyweights," he said through an interpreter. "Brion is our only good heavy-weight. He good fighter but too old he no punch."

Firpo, reportedly a millionaire, said he has "three or four" ranches near Buenos Aires, covering some 12,000 acres. He has 7,000 head of cattle—some bulls but no fighting bulls. Just eating bulls.

He came up for the boxing writers dinner last week and will remain another week, renewing old acquaintances.

Around the gym they say Brion will be matched with Archie Moore in a non-title scrap at St. Louis, Feb. 25. It's not official yet. Brion has a Feb. 16 date at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway with Bob Baker and Moore goes in Toledo next Tuesday in an over-the-weight match.

row. In their last three starts Escanaba has defeated Menominee, Stephenson and Gladstone.

Conference Wins
The undefeated Hematites have posted Great Lakes wins over Marquette, Newberry, Negaunee and Munising. Ishpeming has also defeated Escanaba in a previous game in addition to posting wins over Stambaugh and Iron Mountain in the Menominee Range Conference.

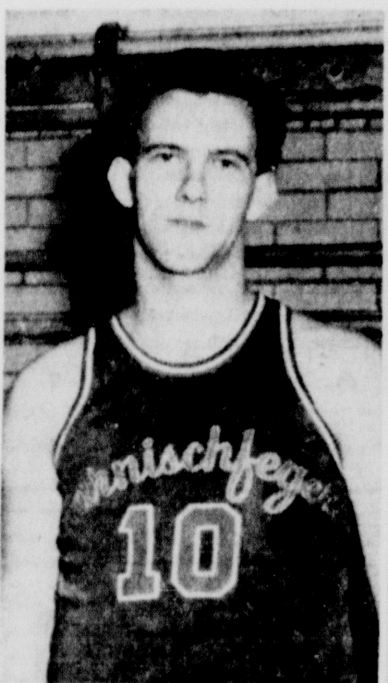

Named to the starting Eskymo lineup for tonight were Fred Boddy and Bill McGovern at guards, Dick Peterson at center and John Peterson, Pat McDonough or Paul Davidson at forwards.

Manistiquie Second
Ishpeming will go for its ninth straight win with Bob Sharland at center, Don Kangas and Dave Garceau at forwards, John Philippi and Loren Bess or Tom Thornton at guards.

Trailing the Hematites in the Great Lakes standings is Manistiquie with three straight wins. The Emeralds of Coach Rudy Brandstrom have posted victories over Newberry, Gladstone and Sault Ste. Marie. Manistiquie also has a pair of non-conference wins on the books this season.

Team	Won	Lost
Ishpeming	4	0
Manistiquie	3	0
Newberry	4	2
Negaunee	2	2
Gladstone	1	1
Marquette	1	3
Sault Ste. Marie	1	3
Munising	0	5

In This Corner With Roy Crandall

The Escanaba Hawks have the unique distinction of having defeated the defending Portage Lake Pioneers twice this season. . . Escanaba did a nice job against the powerful Pioneers Wednesday night. . . The Hawks weren't exactly overloaded with spares, but the players all put out to the limit. . . Jim Ogle, new Hawk wingman, didn't scare a bit when Tony Bukovich turned "bad boy" briefly after in the first period. . . Tony turned on the heat for a second but cooled off when the new Hawk stood right up to him.

Paul Vezina, formerly of Manistiquie and currently skiing with the Marquette Avalanche Club of Milwaukee, has been turning in some outstanding jumping performances this winter. . . He placed second in Class B in two recent meets. . . At Wood, Wis., he leaped 99 and 108 feet, just short of the new hill record. . . And at Beloit he displayed near perfect form on jumps of 143 and 169 feet for 194 points, just three tenths of a point behind the Class B winner.

Speaking of the Bukovichs, the three brothers were standouts for the Pioneers in defeating Calumet's Radars 8-1 the night before they came to Escanaba. . . The three brothers combined to score seven of the eight Pioneer goals.

The Powers Tigers are the top scoring team in U. P. basketball, according to statistician Jim Trethewey of the Marquette Mining Journal. . . Coach Irv Soderlund's cagers are hitting the hoop at an average of 72 points per game. . . Gwinn, St. Joe's foe Saturday night is averaging 67. . . Ishpeming, Escanaba's opponent tonight, has averaged 63.

Senator Training Camp To Be Rookie Paradise

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK — Washington's training camp at Orlando, Fla., will be a rookies' paradise, according to Manager Bucky Harris.

"There's a place on this club for a rookie catcher, a rookie second baseman, a rookie outfielder and four rookie pitchers," Harris said.

Washington's greatest need is a good, starting southpaw. That's why Harris traded the rookie sensation, Mike Fornieles, to the Chicago White Sox for southpaw Chuck Stobbs.

Harris is not particularly impressed with lefty Al Sima despite his 24 victories and nine defeats in the Southern Association. Sima, who has been up twice before, is 30.

Another lefthander, 22-year-old Dean Stone, carries the recommendation of farm director Ossie Bluege. Stone won 17, lost 10 and had an earned run average of 3.18 at Charlotte in a class B league last year.

There are six candidates for the second base job but Harris indicated the job will go to LeRoy Dietzel, who was out nearly all season with a leg fracture that was a duplicate of a similar one in 1951. But the Washington team physician is not satisfied with the manner in which the break is knitting. Les Peden, drafted from the Pacific Coast League, is given a chance to wrest the regular catching job away from Mickey Grasso.

Olympic, Foreign Champs Tangle In Big Track Test

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—More than 400 athletes including five Olympic titlists and a score of national, intercollegiate and foreign champions vie for top honors tonight at the ninth annual Philadelphia Inquirer indoor track meet at Convention Hall.

The vaulting parson, Rev. Robert E. Richards, will be taking on all comers in the pole vaulting contest and the big question will be whether he will repeat his last five performances.

New Marks

In five previous vaults here, Richards has soared to a new meet record. Last winter the Olympic champion topped the cross bar at 15' 3", a mark heretofore attained only by the retiring Cornelius Warmerdam and Don Laz, the runnerup in last year's Olympic competition in Finland.

Four other victors of the contests at Helsinki last July will also be on hand. They are:

Mal Whitfield, two time winner of the 800 meter run; Harrison (Bones) Dillard; 100 meter champion of 1948 who captured the 110 meter high hurdles; Horace Ashenfelter, former Penn State star and now an FBI agent, who startled the world by defeating the Russian favorites in the 3,000 meter steeplechase, and Andy Stamford, the 200 meter victor, who is regarded by many experts as the fastest human in the world.

Gehrmann May Quit

Don Gehrmann, for three years the king of the board with 25 victories in 31 races at eight furlongs may be running his last race.

The Wisconsin whippet missed the boat to Finland last year when he was beaten by a foot for third place in the Olympic 800 meter trials and last Saturday ran fourth at Boston.

"I'm not filing an entry for the Wanamaker Mile until I see what I do at Philadelphia," he told Howard Schmetz, son of the director of next Thursday's Melrose Games at New York's Madison Square Garden.

"If I don't do better," he continued, "I'm going to retire."

Nine State Gridders Drafted By Pro Clubs

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Nine players from three Michigan colleges were snapped up yesterday by members of the National Professional Football League in the league's annual draft of collegiate gridiron talent.

Three Michigan State College players, four University of Michigan gridmen, and two University of Detroit stars were drafted in the 30-rounds of tapping by members of the NFL.

The Washington Redskins drafted MSC and Paul Dekker on their third round. Washington also took Spartan Ed Timmerman as its 13th round choice.

The Cleveland Browns, runners-up to the Detroit Lions for League honors last season, drafted Michigan State linebacker Dick Tamburo on their fourth choice.

The only Michigan college player to fall to the champion Detroit Lions was University of Michigan quarterback Ted Topor. The Lions tapped Topor on the 15th round.

Other Wolverine players drafted were; center Roger Zatkoff by the Green Bay Packers; end Lowell Perry, by the Pittsburgh Steelers; and back Lawrence LeClaire by the Philadelphia Eagles.

The Pittsburgh Steelers also drafted the University of Detroit's star passer Ted Marchbroda. Marchbroda, ranked the number one passer in the nation last season, was the Steeler's first choice.

Washington drafted U. of D. end Ed Bierne on the 23rd round.

Sedgman And Kramer Meet At Northwestern
EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Australia's Frank Sedgman and California's Jack Kramer are expected to draw 6,000 customers to their tennis rivalry tonight and Saturday at Northwestern University's new McGaw Memorial Hall.

Sedgman currently leads in the transcontinental series six matches to five. Kramer, the world professional champion and promoter of the tour is ahead in games won, 126-112, and in sets, 13-12.

The tour so far has included eight cities. Pancho Segura, three times national intercollegiate champion before turning pro, will play Ken McGregor, Sedgman's Davis Cup teammate. Segura is seeking his 13th consecutive victory in their series.

Draft Over, Pro Grid Owners Set For Battle

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The peaceful operation of making a bonus choice and drafting college players out of the way, National Football League owners rolled up their sleeves today and prepared for their customary knock down, drag out fight over organizational problems.

The 12 franchise owners, their general managers and coaches drafted a total of 360 players in a 14-hour session yesterday. Fourteen of the 1952 all-America crop—including the entire offensive team—were grabbed for post graduate work in the field of football.

Surprise Pick

The biggest surprise choice in the entire draft came at the outset, when the San Francisco 49ers won the bonus pick and snapped up Harry Babcock, Georgia University's pass snatching end. Forty-nine officials said they passed up the host of illustrious all-America talent to get Babcock because they need an offensive end who can catch long passes. Babcock, they said, was the best around in college ranks last year.

When Bert Bell calls the annual meeting to order for its second session, four items are certain to be brought front and center:

1. A proposal to lower the player limit from 33 to 30.
2. Placing of Baltimore in one of the league's two divisions.
3. The 1953 schedule.

Squabbles Likely

Each problem has plenty of pros and cons among the owners and squabbles appear inevitable.

Only one thing seems certain. It takes 10 votes out of 12 to pass on an issue. The usual procedure in this league is for the owners to spend hours arguing and then give up and ask Commissioner Bell to solve the matter. It wouldn't surprise anyone if Bell had the final say on everything.

The proposal to lower the player limit has the support of the commissioner, some of the owners and none of the coaches. The idea is to cut about $15,000 to $20,000 off the salary department. Bell has recommended economy all the way down the line to lessen the risk of big losses for the losing clubs.

Baltimore Problem

The job of placing Baltimore in one of the two conferences is sure to provoke a floor fight. Bell says Baltimore has replaced Dallas in the National Conference, which includes most of the western teams on a geographical basis. Don Kell, general manager of the new Baltimore team, says he doesn't care where his team operates. Some of the other owners do care.

George Marshall of the Washington Redskins wants Baltimore in the American Conference, or eastern sector of the league. He wants to play Baltimore twice a season to build up what Marshall claims is a natural rivalry between the two teams which operate 30 miles apart. Marshall would send the Chicago Cardinals from the American to the National Conference where he insists they belong.

Art Rooney, owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers, says he'll be glad to go into the National Conference and let Baltimore have his American spot.

Eagles Opposed

You would think that makes everything easy with Baltimore not caring where it plays and Pittsburgh quite willing to switch. But enter the Philadelphia Eagles.

The Eagles, while not making any official statement, are reported to oppose the moving of Pittsburgh. The Eagles, it is said, feel that they went along playing the Steelers twice a year when the Pittsburgh entry was in bad shape. Now that the Steelers have a pretty good club, the Eagles can see some pretty good gates for battles with their intrastate rivals.

Rooney would solve the whole thing by having the league play a round robin schedule which means that fans in each league city would get to see every team in the NFL over a two-year period. He doubts his round-robin idea will get to first base, though.

No Top Players In Lions' Draft, Get Fullback On Trade

DETROIT (AP)—The National Professional Football League champion Detroit Lions failed to draft any top collegiate football players in the league's annual player draft in Philadelphia yesterday.

But the Lions, through a swap with the newly formed Baltimore Colts (ex-Dallas Texans) came up with one of the better fullbacks in pro circles.

Get Hoerner

Coach Buddy Parker announced the Lions had picked up Dick Hoerner from the Colts. Parker said the Lions traded quarterback Tom Dublinski for Hoerner.

Hoerner, expected to ease the load on Pat Harder, played for the Los Angeles Rams for five years before being traded to the defunct Texans last year. Hoerner is 6 feet 4 and weighs 220.

Edwin J. Anderson, president of the Detroit club, announced yesterday that the Lions' entire coaching staff had been signed to 1953 contracts. Terms of the one year contracts were not disclosed.

Players drafted by the Lions yesterday were:

Draft Choices

Gene Donaldson, Kentucky tackle (traded to Cleveland); Charles Ane, Southern California, tackle; Oliver Spencer, Kansas, tackle; Joe Schmidt, Pittsburgh, center; Lewis Carpenter, Arkansas, back; Carlton McCormick, Texas Christian, center; Marion Gaskin, Clemson, end; Elmer Messenger, Washington State, guard; Larry Spencer, Wake Forest, back; Robert Thomas, Washington and Lee, end; Jack Barger, New Mexico, tackle; Ted Topor, Michigan, back; Bob Volonino, Army and Villanova, guard; Ray Green, Duke, tackle; Dick Migduszewski, William and Mary, back; Paul Held, San Diego, back; Gerald Hart, Mississippi State, back; Bob Tata, Virginia State, back; Carl Karilbantz, Syracuse, end; Truett Grant, Duke, tackle; and Marvin Brown, East Texas State, back.

PACKER PICKS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The following players were picked by the Green Bay Packers in the National Football League Draft:

Al "Hoagy" Carmichael, back; Southern Calif.; Gil Reich, back; Kansas and Army; Bill Forester, tackle; Southern Methodist; Gib Dawson, back; Texas; Roger Zatkoff, linebacker, Michigan; Bob Kennedy, guard, Wisc.; James Ringo, center, Syracuse; Lauren Hargrove, back, Georgia; Floyd Harwood, tackle, Tulsa; Victor Rimkus, guard, Holy Cross; Joe Johnson, back, Boston College; Dick Curran, back, Arizona State (Tempe); Bob Orders, center, Army and West Virginia; Charles Wrenn, tackle, Texas Christian; Gene Helwig, back, Tulsa; John Hlay, back, Ohio State; Bill Georges, end, Texas; Jim Philbee, back; Bradley; Phil Lucky, tackle, Baylor; John Harville, back, Texas Christian; Bob Conway, back, Alabama; Bill Turnbaugh, tackle, Auburn; Bill Murray, end, American International; Jim Haslam, tackle, Tennessee; Ike Jones, end, UCLA; George Bonzanic, back, Southern California; James McConaughy, end, Houston; Zack Jordan, back, Colorado; Henry O'Brien, guard, Boston College.

Sentinels Post 6-4

Ice Win Over Radars

MARQUETTE — Playing the best defensive hockey they've shown in years, the Marquette Sentinels defeated the Calumet Radars, 6-4, on Palestra ice last night.

Time and again, the Marquette defensemen broke up Calumet rushes with some neat poke-checking. The play of both goalies was outstanding, with Marquette's Jim DeMarinis turning in one of the best games of his career. Young DeMarinis just turned 17 this week.

Julian "Cud" VanOverloop scored three goals for Marquette, but most pleasing to the 1,775 paying fans was the solo score by Jerome "Bucky" O'Neill after four minutes of the second period. His goal was the first of the game.

Speaker Announces House Committees

LANSING (P)—Speaker Wade Van Valkenburg (R-Kalamazoo) announced committee assignments for the House which included the assignment of new chairmen for eight of the most important committees.

Van Valkenburg retained strict

Republican control of all major committees by appointing only two or three Democrats to each committee.

Rep. Eugene C. Betz (R-Monroe) will succeed former Rep. Robert M. Montgomery as State Affairs Chairman and Rep. Emil R. Peltz (R-Rogers City) will be chairman of the Roads and Bridges Committee to succeed the late Howard R. Nugent.

Rep. Alvin E. Richards (R-Marquette) was the victim of the only demotion. He will be succeeded as chairman of the Committee on Revision and Amendment of the Constitution by Rep. W. Reed Orr (R-Battle Creek). Richards continues as a member of the committee.

Named as new chairman of the Liquor Control Committee was Rep. Edward E. Brigman (R-Grand Rapids). He succeeds former Rep. Glen R. Robinson of South Haven.

Rep. Adrian De Boom (R-Owosso) was named new chairman of the Rules and Resolutions Committee succeeding former Rep. Homer R. Bauer of Charlotte.

Rep. Joseph E. Warner (R-Ypsilanti) was reappointed chairman of the Ways and Means Committee and Rep. Louis E. Anderson (R-Northport) was renamed to head the Committee on General Taxation.

Other important committee chairmen reappointed included Reps. Howard R. Carroll (R-Mt. Clemens) to Judiciary, Harry Mann (R-Laurium) to Labor, John D. Kruse (R-Manistiquie) to Veterans Affairs.

New members appointed to the Ways and Means Committee include Reps. Clarke E. Davis (R-Vermontville), James J. Collins (D-Flint) and James Goulette (R-Iron Mountain).

Reappointees to the appropriation-setting Ways and Means Committee included Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron), Carl G. Lindquist (R-Iron River), Richard B. Thomson (R-Highland Park) and Gerald L. Murphy (D-Detroit).

Assembly Program At Rock Friday

ROCK—An astronomical wonder show "Out of This World" presented by Robert T. Edgar will be given at the Rock High School Auditorium, Friday, Jan. 30, at 2 p. m. Another excellent School Assembly Service presentation, this is an educational show, based on authenticated scientific knowledge. This unusual program which is open to the public demonstrates the weird, strange and hilarious aspects of space travel.

St. Anne's Society
Mrs. Frank Salmi entertained the Rock St. Anne's Society at the Francis Trombly home Wednesday evening. An election of officers was held at this meeting which was attended by 15 of the regular members. Mrs. Emil De-Backer, new secretary-treasurer for the organization, replaces Mrs. Josie Carlson. Mrs. Clare Horgan, Mrs. August Lindstrom and Mrs. Francis Trombly were elected to the flower fund and executive committee replacing Mrs. George Weingartner, Mrs. Paul Ramseth and Mrs. Clarence Larson. Games were played and Mrs. Francis Trombly, who will entertain the women at their next gathering, received the evening's prize.

Joint School Meeting
A joint meeting of the Maple Ridge Township Board and School Board was held last week. Purpose of the meeting was to find some means of alleviating the school's present financial condition. The township board agreed to advance $5,000 in taxes to the school.

Personals
Mrs. John Small of Rock was admitted to the St. Luke's Hospital in Marquette on Sunday.
Mrs. Charles Kaponen who has been a medical patient at the St. Francis Hospital in Escanaba for more than two weeks was discharged on Tuesday and returned to her home in Rock.

Uncle John Hannah Moved By Farewell At Michigan State

EAST LANSING (P)—Michigan State College President John A. Hannah choked up with emotion Wednesday night and for a few moments was caught without words.

The usually unruffled Hannah was visibly moved as Michigan State undergraduates held a mass rally in his honor in the college auditorium.

His nephews and nieces had plotted the gathering to say "good-bye" to "Uncle John"—his nickname among undergraduates—before he leaves for Washington to take a post as Assistant Secretary of Defense.

More than 2,500 undergraduates crowded into the college auditorium for the occasion.

Rapid River PTA Will Sponsor Film

A film, "Meeting Emotional Needs of Childhood," will be shown when the Rapid River PTA meets Monday night, January 26, at 8 in the Rapid River Rural Agricultural School. Miss Phoebe Anderson, Delta County health nurse, will explain the film and lead a group discussion.

Robert Olson, vice-president, will preside over the meeting. Lunch will be served. Interested members of the public are urged to attend. Oliver Lund, PTA president, stressed in announcing the film showing.

Brazil's eucalyptus plantations, developed from trees brought in from Australia early in the century, are beginning to pay off as a source of cellulose for rayon.

Income Tax Refunds Start In Michigan To Total $160,997

DETROIT (P)—Income tax refund checks will be received by 1,961 Michigan taxpayers next week, the Internal Revenue Bureau said.

The refunds will total $160,997, according to A. M. Menninger, internal revenue director for Michigan.

He said the number of refund checks will accelerate daily until it reaches the capacity of 40,000 a day.

Menninger expressed the hope that all 1,300,000 refund checks will be in the hands of taxpayers by April 15—a month after the deadline for filing 1952 tax returns.

Average of today's refunds was $80, but Menninger said the overall average will be about $50.

REACHING FOR FLASH FAME—The nine photogenic girls, above, are all hoping to possess the gold-plated trophy for which they're reaching, and which actor Dane Clark is holding. The "nifty nine" were picked at random from hundreds of applicants for a chance to win the title of "Miss Photo Flash of 1953," which will be awarded by the Chicago Press Photographers' Association on February 7. The girl who makes the brightest "flash" in the eyes of the judges will win the trophy, and a trip to Hollywood.

FAYETTE—Glen Larsen is receiving medical treatment at the Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital, Manistiquie.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Laux, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Laux, and Cecil Laux attended the funeral services for Mrs. William Laux at Manistiquie, Wednesday afternoon.

The Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church held a regular meeting at the parish hall Wednesday evening. After the meeting the members had a silent auction.

Jewish Persecution Protests Condemned At Soviet Embassy

WASHINGTON (P)—A protest group carrying such signs as "End Soviet Persecution of Jews" called yesterday at the Soviet Embassy.

But Ambassador Georgi N. Zarubin turned the callers away, saying through a spokesman they had made "slandorous attacks on the Soviet Union."

The group, the Jewish Labor Committee of New York, which represents Jewish members of the AFL and CIO, then called on Sen. Lehman (D. Lib.-N. Y.) at Capitol Hill.

Lehman told his visitors: "We will need to arouse the conscience of all mankind."

He was referring to possible broad-scale purges of Jews behind the Iron Curtain, indicated in recent reports from abroad.

HEATING HINTS

Oil burners are like people—they usually treat you the way you treat them. Here are some hints to keep your oil burner happy and efficient: (1) have it inspected and cleaned once a year; (2) avoid overworking it by adjusting thermostats to reasonable 70-72 degrees for daytime, 65 degrees at night; (3) feed it Shell Furnace Oil with magic FOA-5X, a unique ingredient that keeps the filter screen clean, yet it costs no more than ordinary heating oils.

Dollar Volume Up For Michigan Liquor Sales During 1952

LANSING (P)—The dollar volume for liquor sales in Michigan in 1952 showed an increase over the year previous although the total in case sales dropped, the State Liquor Control Commission reported today.

The dollar volume for sales last year totaled $143,384,921, an increase of $1,958,723 over the 1951 total of $141,366,108.

Case sales showed a drop, however, from 3,662,774 cases in 1951 to 3,441,971 cases in 1952, a decrease of 220,803 cases.

The statistical division of the commission said the decrease was mostly due to a spurt of panic buying in 1951, when many people believed the Korean War would dry up the liquor supply.

The increase in dollar sales was attributed to the increase in the federal liquor tax during the past year.

INTRODUCING "Body Beautiful" HORMONE LOTION BY COTY

the finest hormone lotion to help your body look young!

Most women let skin care stop with their face, forgetting that the body is an important part of beauty. Skin everywhere on the body can be kept just as young-looking and young-feeling. All that's needed is proper skin care all over the body.

For just that purpose COTY has developed an entirely new lotion, called "Body Beautiful" Hormone Lotion. Scientifically blended from hormones and other beneficial ingredients, this new lotion lets every single inch of your body benefit from hormones.

Natural Hormones, Estradiol and Other Beneficial Ingredients Help Retain Skin Moisture

Thanks to estrogenic hormones and estradiol, your skin can be helped to keep the moisture, and suppleness it would naturally have. It's only when dryness creeps in that you begin to notice criss-cross wrinkles on your hands—runs in your stockings caused by roughness and flaky skin on legs and ankles—"sandpaper" elbows that mar otherwise pretty forearms. That's exactly when "Body Beautiful" Hormone Lotion can help you retain the proper degree of moisture in skin and under-tissues... regain the thrill of looking young... feeling young from the tips of your fingers to the tops of your toes.
